

someofallofus 2024 Solo Exhibition in Milan at Wizard Milan – March 26 – April 26

someofallofus is a snapshot of my recent paintings shown in a jewel box white box space at Wizard Gallery in Milan, Italy. I have exhibited regularly in Italy since 2005. I continue to explore the studio's material processes, which have become the subject fabric of my work. The work is discrete paintings and also a collection of paintings that are part of my perpetualstudio. The material processes that have emerged most prominently over past decade are the residue of painted tape and my printed images of other art I see daily and mostly in NYC. I am inspired by the abundance of culture in NYC and the accumulation of inquiry in my studio. I have worked in this studio since 1998.
